

THE SECRETARY OF WAR
WASHINGTON

July 8, 1931.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

This letter will introduce to you my old friend and schoolmate, Charles Drew, of Wewoka, Oklahoma.

Mr. Drew is a member of the Creek Tribe, an excellent citizen, and a friend of mine since our boyhood. He has advised me that he has some business to transact with your Department.

Any courtesies you may be able to show Mr. Drew will be deeply appreciated by me.

With kind regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Daniel J. Mulvey", is written over the typed name.

Honorable Joseph M. Dixon,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior,
Washington, D. C.
